

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

March 27, 2000

H.R. 3707

American Institute in Taiwan Facilities Enhancement Act

As ordered reported by the House Committee on International Relations on March 23, 2000

H.R. 3707 would authorize $75 million for the design and construction of a new facility in Taipei to be used by the American Institute in Taiwan. The American Institute in Taiwan is a nonprofit corporation that facilitates programs and relations between the United States and Taiwan. CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 3707 would cost $6 million in 2001 and $63 million over the 2001-2005 period, assuming appropriation of the authorized amount. (We estimate that the remaining $12 million would be spent after 2005.) Because the bill would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply.

H.R. 3707 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact is Sunita D'Monte. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
